FWP, Montana Audubon Center hosting Bat-Stravaganza October 27

Free event with bat-themed educational activities for all ages

BILLINGS – Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks and the Montana Audubon Center are hosting Bat-Stravaganza, a family-friendly event focused on learning about and celebrating bats. The free event will take place Friday, Oct. 27, at the Montana Audubon Center (7026 S. Billings Blvd.) from 6-8 p.m. All ages are welcome.

Participants at Bat-Stravaganza will learn about threats to and benefits of bats, play educational games, explore a “bat cave,” and make bat-themed crafts. Halloween costumes are encouraged. Prizes, snacks, and fun giveaways will be available.

Bats provide a variety of benefits to humans and the ecosystem, such as crop protection, insect pest control and pollination. In Montana, there are 15 different species of bats, 11 of which are considered “Species of Concern” due threats such as habitat loss and white nose syndrome. For more information on bats in Montana, visit: fwp.mt.gov/conservation/wildlife-management/bats.

Bat-Stravaganza will take place during Bat Week, an international, annual celebration held the last week of October. The goal of Bat Week is to raise awareness about bat conservation and improve public perception of these unique and important animals. For more information on Bat Week, visit: batweek.org. Registration is required for Bat-Stravaganza. To RSVP, send an email to Becca Mathias at rmathias@mtaudubon.org.

Youth-Only Deer Hunt Comes Just Before General Season Opener

The two-day youth hunt is open to:

- This hunt is for deer only. All regulations apply. Elk hunting is prohibited. Young hunters must wear hunter orange and follow all hunting district regulations, which may limit them to certain species or require a special permit. Learn more by visiting: <https://fwp.mt.gov/>

Montana law requires hunters to obtain permission for all hunting on private land. Whether pursuing upland game birds, coyotes, gophers or any other wildlife, hunters must have permission from the landowner before hunting on private property. This also includes entering private land to retrieve wildlife or to access public land to hunt.

Turn in Poachers
Call 1-800-TIP-MONT

HELENA - The Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks toll-free hotline for reporting wildlife poaching, property damage, and violations of fish and game laws is in operation 24 hours a day.

TIP-MONT is the acronym for Turn in Poachers—Montana. Poaching includes:

- hunting out of season or at night using spotlights
- taking more than one's legal limit
- nonresidents who purchase resident licenses
- professional and commercial poachers who illegally offer outfitter and guide services.

When it comes to poaching, Montanans are saying, "Enough is enough!"

If you witness a fish and game violation, or property vandalism, you can report the crime by calling 1-800-TIP-MONT (1-800-847-6668); or Report a Violation online at fwp.mt.gov, then click Enforcement.

Callers may remain anonymous and may be eligible for a cash reward. Learn more by visiting: <https://fwp.mt.gov/>
