Yellowstone Gallery Sale

In 1983 Jerry and Christina Kahrs embarked upon what would become a 32-year adventure in our adopted home town of Gardiner, Montana. We established the Yellowstone Gallery & Frameworks at our first location in our home at 12 East Park Street in one of our town's historic rock houses.

We relocated our business a couple of times before abandoning our storefront 8 years ago when we sold our building to the Gardiner Chamber of Commerce. But since we did not sell our business, all of our inventory: fine arts, crafts, historical Yellowstone items, gifts, jewelry, etc. was packed up and put into storage.

So now it is time to gather all these artworks and crafts and offer them to you once again as we come full circle. We will be hosting an Open House at our home at 12 East Park Street where we'll set up and showcase the Gallery's inventories. Please join use on Thursday even, Nov. 16th, 4pm-7pm; and Friday and Saturday, Nov. 17th & 18th from 10am-3pm for a look at our great offerings.

Get a jump on the Holidays and take advantage of our incredible sale prices. Hope to see you at our home.

Hunters Can Thank Landowners Through New Portal on FWP Website

HELENA – In Montana, many landowners allow hunting on their lands with permission or as part of a Fish, Wildlife & Parks access program. Now hunters have a simple way to say thank you for the privilege of access. FWP is launching a portal for hunters to say thank you to landowners who provided access and helped make their hunting season a success.

Hunters can go online, identify a landowner by name and/or block management area and FWP region, provide a note of thanks and even upload a photo. FWP will collect these thank you notes and distribute them to landowners at the end of the year.

“We frequently hear from hunters how grateful they are for the access they get from landowners across the state,” said FWP Director Dustin Temple. “Many hunters enjoy incredible access to private lands. We want to help facilitate communicating their gratitude to the landowners who provide that access.”

This new online feature is part of the “It’s Up To Us” campaign to promote ethical hunting. This campaign is an annual effort with FWP and several partner organizations to encourage hunters to take the initiative to promote good hunter ethics and behavior, particularly on private lands. The campaign website is fwp.mt.gov/ItsUpToUs. Here hunters can find tips on ethical hunting, links to informative video content and the new “Thank a Landowner” portal.

The page also features access to the Hunter Landowner Stewardship projects and links to campaign partners.
