Yellowstone National Park Law Enforcement Officers Investigate Incident of a Man Intentionally Disturbing a Bison Calf; Incident Results in Death of Calf

Visitors: Respect wildlife by giving them room to roam

MAMMOTH HOT SPRINGS, WY – Yellowstone National Park law enforcement officers are asking the public for information about an incident that occurred on the evening of May 20, 2023, between an unidentified man and a newborn bison calf in the park's northeast corner. The unfortunate incident where the man intentionally disturbed the calf resulted in the death of the calf.

An unidentified white male in his 40-50's, wearing a blue shirt and black pants, approached a newborn bison calf in Lamar Valley near the confluence of the Lamar River and Soda Butte Creek. The calf had been separated from its mother when the herd crossed the Lamar River. As the calf struggled, the man pushed the calf up from the river and onto the roadway. Visitors later observed the calf walk up to and follow cars and people.

Interference by people can cause wildlife to reject their offspring. In this case, park rangers tried repeatedly to reunite the calf with the herd. These efforts failed. The calf was later killed by park staff because it was abandoned by the herd and causing a hazardous situation by approaching cars and people along the roadway.

Approaching wild animals can drastically affect their well-being and, in this case, their survival. Park regulations require that people stay at least 25 yards (23 m) away from all wildlife (including bison, elk and deer) and at least 100 yards (91 m) away from bears and wolves. Disregarding these regulations can result in fines, injury and even death. The safety of these animals, as well as human safety, depends on everyone using good judgment and following these simple rules.

If you were in Lamar Valley on the evening of May 20, 2023, and have information that could help this investigation, please contact the Yellowstone National Park Tip Line at 307-344-2132 or YELL_Tip@nps.gov.

This incident is under investigation.

Visit a webpage about when Yellowstone staff intervene in a natural process and why for more information.

DANGER: Elk Calving Season has Begun in Yellowstone National Park

Be aware of your surroundings!

- Elk calving season has begun in Yellowstone National Park.
- Cow elk are much more aggressive towards people during the calving season and may run towards you or kick.
- Stay alert. Look around corners before exiting buildings or walking around blind spots: cow elk may bed their calves near buildings and under cars.
- Always keep at least 25 yards (23 m) from elk.
- If an elk runs toward you, find shelter in your vehicle or behind a tall, sturdy barrier as quickly as possible.
- You are responsible for your own safety.
- Attacks can be unprovoked and unpredictable.
- Visit Elk for more information.

THANK YOU

THANK YOU to the Gardiner School for the recent day of caring. A special thank you to students: Tyler Stermitz, Lyndin Dentinger, Seena Burns, Zeb Huelva and Signe Saunders for working so hard in my yard. Thanks, too, to Anne Peck and Shelby Coy for all they did to help. – Judy Jensen

A BIG THANK YOU to the Gardiner School students: Olivia, Noemie, Journey, and Elias and teacher Cody Carlson for their fantastic hard work doing spring cleaning around my yard and home. They put me 2 weeks ahead of schedule without a sore back (at least not mine). And thank you to the Gardiner Market for the flowers the students brought me. All Much Appreciated. You are all AWESOME. Full of thanks, Mauray Miller

BIG THANK YOU. We would like to give a thankful recognition to all the students of Gardiner School who helped those in the local area to clean, restore, and improve property. Special thanks to Lia Dummer, Badger Hoppe, Cayden Hoppe, Mitch Gretzinger and Alex White who were diligent and efficient in reinforcing our snow fence and other significant help. Thanks to teachers and drivers especially Hali Kirby-Ertel. It was a blessing to get manure for my garden. Sincere gratitude, Becky

As Memorial Day approaches, American Legion Post 118 asks that you pause to remember and give thanks to our many heroes that never returned from the mountains of Afghanistan, the deserts of the Middle East, the jungles of Vietnam, the “Forgotten War” in Korea, the islands of the Pacific, the European continent, and many other lands. We cannot repay their sacrifice, but we can and must continue the legacy for which they died: the causes of democracy, decency, and patriotism. While Memorial Day is intended to honor our fallen, we should not forget those who have pledged to make the same sacrifice if called upon—the young men and women still serving in the United States and more than 130 foreign lands. Freedom is not a gift. It is an earned benefit that was paid for by the blood of our heroes. From the Revolutionary War to the War on Terrorism, the sacrifices and caliber of America’s fighting men and women have been nothing short of inspirational. Let us always remember them!

Please join us at 9 am on Monday May 29th at the Gardiner Cemetery to honor our fallen comrades. The cemetery is on the road 1/2 mile north of the high school.

Yellowstone Tribal Heritage Center Opens for Second Season

MAMMOTH HOT SPRINGS, WY – On Wednesday, May 17, 2023, the Yellowstone Tribal Heritage Center opens to the public for the season. Located in the Old Faithful area, the Yellowstone Tribal Heritage Center is a space where Indigenous artists, scholars and presenters from the 27 associated Tribes of Yellowstone National Park directly engage with visitors through demonstrations and discussions. Now in its second year, the center is a partnership between the National Park Service and Yellowstone Forever, with Tribal consultation.

During the 2023 season, 37 presenters from 18 associated Tribes will directly engage with Yellowstone visitors through formal and informal education. Presentations will include photography, beadwork, moccasin making, dancing, storytelling, quillwork and more.

“Many Tribal Nations have a continuous presence in the area now known as Yellowstone National Park,” said Alyssa McGeeley, Yellowstone Tribal Heritage Center Coordinator, and member of the Muscogee Tribe from Oklahoma. “The Yellowstone Tribal Heritage Center is a space where Indigenous people from the 27 Tribes associated with the park share the resiliency of their people with visitors from all over the world as artists, educators and culture bearers.”

The Yellowstone Tribal Heritage Center is open May 17, 2023, through Oct. 14, 2023. The center is centrally located between the Old Faithful Lodge and the Old Faithful Visitor Education Center.

The Yellowstone Tribal Heritage Center is made possible through funding from Yellowstone Forever, the National Park Foundation and generous private donations.

To learn more and view the summer 2023 presentation calendar, please visit: Yellowstone.org/tribal-center.

Bear Safety Training Event Happening in Bozeman

FWP to host bear awareness workshop on June 13 to teach bear safety skills

BOZEMAN – Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks staff will host a bear safety event next month to offer training and hands-on practice with bear spray and other safety resources.

The workshop will be Tuesday, June 13, from 11:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., in the south parking lot of FWP’s Bozeman office, 1400 S. 19th Ave.

This event will include bear displays and safety talks on the hour. The displays include grizzly bear and black bear full-body mounts, skulls, tracks, food storage options, bear spray holsters, and a remote-controlled bear spray target. Participants will have the unique opportunity to practice using inert bear spray in a simulated charging bear demonstration.

FWP staff will give away up to 30 cans of bear spray on a first-come-first-served basis to those who attend the first presentation at noon.

FWP staff will be available to discuss bear safety practices, bear biology and how to handle bear encounters. They will provide in-depth training on how to carry and use bear spray. This event is family friendly, and everyone is welcome.

Bears can be found throughout Montana. In recent years, grizzly bear populations have expanded. People venturing into the outdoors should be “bear aware” by following these precautionary steps:

- Carry bear spray, know how to use it, and be prepared to use it immediately.
- Travel in groups whenever possible and plan to be out in the daylight hours.
- Avoid carcass sites and concentrations of ravens and other scavengers.
- Watch for signs of bears such as bear scat, diggings, torn-up logs and turned over rocks, and partly consumed animal carcasses.
- Make noise, especially near streams or in thick forest where hearing and visibility is impaired. This can be the key to avoiding encounters. Most bears will avoid humans when they know humans are present.
- Don't approach a bear.
- Keep attractants secured and follow all food storage regulations.

For more information on bear safety, visit go.usa.gov/xJB6U.
