ACCESS YELLOWSTONE FROM GARDINER WITH A GUIDE!

Beginning on July 2, visitors to Yellowstone National Park who have reservations with licensed Yellowstone tour operators will be allowed entry in commercially guided vehicles in a series of convoys up and down the hill from Gardiner to Mammoth Hot Springs—this in an effort to allow limited park access without disrupting massive road construction that will see the historic stagecoach road being widened to two lanes and paved in an effort to become operational before winter.

If you've already reserved a tour with a tour company, or were planning on doing so, we encourage you to keep your reservations as the new system unfolds. If you haven't booked a tour yet, we suggest you contact companies directly and see if they happen to have any last-minute availability.

As our community recovers from the economic fallout related to the historic flooding events of June 13, 2022 restaurant hours of operation are subject to change. If you are choosing to dine out during your visit, you have made a great decision as our area has something to offer for everyone! When supporting our hard-working eateries please pack your patience and be kind.

Restaurant businesses shown in red are reportedly closed due to the economic impact of flooding events of June 13, 2022. However, we strongly encourage to reach out to the establishment if you are interested in dining as they may have reopened since publishing this directory.
